

Postgraduate Social Science modules available for incoming exchange students 2021-22

These are POSTGRADUATE modules and that they are only available to students who study at that level.

The Department of Social Sciences covers the subject groups International Relations, International Development and Criminology.

Depending on your study programme at home, you may choose options from one subject group or across all three areas.

Subject group	Module code	Module name	Semester	Level	Credits
International Relations	IR7010	Contemporary Challenges in Conflict and Security	1	7	30
	IR7012	Theorising International Relations, Conflict and Security	1	7	30
	IR7009	International Law and Global Justice	2	7	30
	IR7011	Conflict and Security Governance	2	7	30
International Development	SO7005	Development Research, Management and Practice	1	7	30
	SO7006	Critical Development Thinking	1	7	30
	SO7008	Contemporary Development Challenges	2	7	30
	SO7015	Geopolitics of Development	2	7	30
Criminology	CR7002	Comparative Penal Policy	1	7	30
	CR7003	International Crime, Policing and Security	2	7	30
	CR7004	Social Exclusion and Victimisation in a Global Context	2	7	30