

Northumbria University
NEWCASTLE

CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

MSc INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
PhDs in INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Postgraduate Study Open Afternoon

3-5:30pm on Tuesday 22nd May 2018

Lipman Building, room 121, Northumbria University

Interested in developing the skills and expertise to succeed in International Development? Come along and meet our specialist teaching team and find out about exciting opportunities for full and part-time postgraduate study in September 2018. The session will include:

- 'Bite size' workshops
- Information on UK and international placement opportunities
- Insights into International Development careers
- Detailed information on programme content and structure
- Opportunities to chat informally with staff and current Masters students
- Information about scholarships, loans and discounts for Masters level study

To book your place, contact Dr Oliver Hensengerth, the Programme Leader, on oliver.hensengerth@northumbria.ac.uk

Civil Society,
NGOs and Philanthropy

Development
Strategy and Management

Aid, Conflict and Security

Gender, Community and Wellbeing

Project Design,
Monitoring and Evaluation

“The postgraduate programme in International Development at Northumbria are about more than just ‘studying’ – they mean developing the skills, contacts, knowledge, ideas and experience needed for careers in International Development as practitioners, managers, policy makers or researchers.”

Prof Matt Baillie Smith, Director, Centre for International Development

Find out more at northumbria.ac.uk/cid