

THE CLSE WORKSHOP SERIES 2021-2022 (1)

Launched in 2019, the China Law, Society & Economy (CLSE) RIG aims to provide fora to showcase our cutting-edge research and exchange ideas in socio-legal studies between researchers at Northumbria Law School and academics in prestigious law schools and legal and criminal justice professionals in China. We look forward to developing collaborative research with our Chinese partners.

FRIDAY 1– 2PM (BST); 12PM-1PM (GMT)
/ 8-9PM (BEIJING TIME)

The 1-hour workshop consists of two 20-minute short talks or one 40-minute presentation, Q&A and discussion.

ALL WELCOME

MAJOR THEMES

- Animal Law
- Crime, Criminal Law & Criminal Justice
- Intellectual Property Law
- Law, Environment, Fashion & Sustainable Development
- Research Methodology and Impact
- Sports Law

15 OCTOBER

Anna Butler:
The Fashion & Sustainable Development

Ann Ferguson:
Intellectual Property Law:
Recent cases of bad faith/non-use and trademarks

29 OCTOBER

Debbie Rook:
Companion Animals as Family Members

Tony Storey:
Was it Something I Ate?
Challenging a positive test for Performance Enhancing Drugs: To what extent can Athletes avoid Sporting Sanctions by blaming Contaminated Food

12 NOVEMBER

Victoria Roper & FCC RIG:
Corporate Crime in the UK and Ongoing Reform Proposals: Opportunities for international collaboration

19 NOVEMBER

Ali Rieu-Clarke & EL RIG:
International Law Applicable to Hydropower Projects on Transboundary Rivers - Fragmentation or convergence?

26 NOVEMBER

Tony Storey:
The Defence of Insanity: Two 'wrongs' don't make it right: Comparing the interpretation of the M'Naghten Rules on the insanity defence in Australia, Canada and England.

Shuai (Eddie) Wei:
Attrition in Rape Cases: Lessons from China

10 DECEMBER

Paul Dargue:
Empirical Legal Research & the Journal of Legal Research Methodology

Anqi Shen:
Outsider-insider positionality in empirical socio-legal research: A Chinese case study

XMAS SPECIAL

