Using the overall Gradebook to view your marks and feedback

You can view your marks and feedback by going to the overall Gradebook.

Go to <https://elp.northumbria.ac.uk> to open Blackboard (using the Chrome browser) – you might be prompted to login with your university username and password.

- 1 From the left-hand navigation on the landing page, click Gradebook.

All your modules will be displayed.

- 2 Go to the relevant module.

Your mark should be displayed.

If feedback is available, click on the assignment title to view your grades and feedback.

- 3 Click Launch.

This will take you to the Turnitin Assignment Dashboard.

Click on the assignment title to view your feedback.

- 4 If you do not see any assessment for a module in this window, click View all Work().

- 5 You will now see the Gradebook for the module.

You can view your marks from here.

Click on the assignment title to view your marks and feedback.

An assignment showing Pending

What to do if your tutor has stated that your feedback is available but it still states Not Marked in the Gradebook.

- 1 Click on the name of the assignment.

Turnitin assignments are usually have an icon with a chain link in it.

- 2 The Turnitin Assignment Dashboard will appear.

Click on the Assignment title to view your feedback and marks.

Using the Gradebook inside a module to view your marks and feedback

- 1 Click on the Modules and Programmes tab.

Click on the module to open.

- 2 Once loaded, from the top right navigation, click the Gradebook icon.

- 3 The Gradebook for the module will open and show you all the assignments for the module.

Clicking on the title of an assignment will either load the submission point (for the outstanding assignment) or the feedback for the assignment (if marked and the feedback release date has been met).
