

INSTRUMENT OF GOVERNMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTHUMBRIA AT NEWCASTLE

The Instrument and the accompanying Articles of Government are the legal documents which determine the status of the University, and which define the basis for its operation. Details of how their provisions are to be implemented are set out in the Governance Regulations and Election Regulations. They were approved by the University's Board of Governors on 25 April 2022 and came into effect from 1 August 2022.

Cross-references beginning AG are to the Articles of Government, cross-references beginning GR are to the Governance Regulations, cross-references beginning ER are to the Election Regulations and cross-references beginning AB are to the Election Regulations – Staff Governor Nominated by Academic Board.

5	TENURE OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS
5.1	The Board of Governors shall determine the periods of office of the Independent Members, the Co-opted Members and the Internal Members, provided that such terms do not exceed those prescribed or endorsed by the Regulator. Such members shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of their appointment as follows: 5.1.1 Independent Members and Co-opted Members shall serve a maximum of three times three-year terms of office. A Co-opted Member who has previously served three terms of office as an Independent Member shall be eligible to serve one further three-year term only on one of the Board's Committees; 5.1.2 Elected and nominated staff governors (see 4.1.4b and c) shall serve a maximum of two times three-year terms of office, to be served consecutively in accordance with the Governance Regulations; 5.1.3 Nominated student governors shall serve a maximum of two times one-year terms in accordance with the regulations of the Students' Union; 5.1.4 The Vice-Chancellor shall be a member of the Board of Governors ex officio for as long as they hold that position.	GR2.6

	The Board of Governors may in exceptional circumstances extend the terms of office under 5.1.1 beyond nine years if this is necessary for the effective governance of the University.	GR2.5
5.2	A member of the Board of Governors may at any time by notice in writing to the Secretary or the Chair resign their office, which will become vacant from the date of receipt of the notice or date of resignation specified in the notice (whichever shall be the later).
5.3	If at any time the Board of Governors is satisfied that any member of the Board of Governors: 5.3.1 has been absent from meetings of the Board of Governors for a period of six months or three consecutive meetings without reasonable justification or the permission of the Chair of the Board of Governors; 5.3.2 is unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a member; or 5.3.3 is not 'fit and proper' to act in such capacity as determined by criteria set by the Regulator, The Board of Governors may by notice in writing remove that member from office, and the office shall become vacant upon delivery of the notice. The vacancy will then be filled in accordance with section 4.3 above.	GR2.1
5.4	Where an Internal Member ceases before the end of their period of office to be a member of staff or a student of the University (as the case may be) their office shall become vacant at the same time. The vacancy will then be filled in accordance with section 4.3 above.	GR2.4 ER4.4
6	OFFICERS
6.1	The Board of Governors shall appoint from among its Independent Members in accordance with the Governance Regulations and on the recommendation of Nominations Committee a Deputy Chair and a Senior Independent Governor; the roles of these officers are set out in the Governance Regulations.	GR2.3
7	COMMITTEES
7.1	The Board of Governors shall establish Committees as required or endorsed by the Primary Regulator, in accordance with accepted sector best practice or at its discretion to support the conduct of the University, and permit such committees to co-opt persons who are not members of the Board of Governors.	GR5
8	MEMBERS ALLOWANCES, BENEFITS AND REMUNERATION
8.1	The Board of Governors shall determine any remuneration, allowances or other benefits to be paid to members of the Board of Governors.	GR4
8.2	The University may, and may only, confer benefits on members of the Board of Governors if the benefit has been authorised by the Board of Governors in accordance with the Governance Regulations, which must comply with the Charity Commission's guidelines. In this paragraph, "benefit" includes: (a) buying any goods or services from the University; (b) selling goods, services or any interest in land to the University; (c) being employed by, or receiving any remuneration from the University; (d) receiving any other financial benefit from the University.

9	SEAL
9.1	The application of the seal of the University shall be authenticated by the signatures of any two members of the Board of Governors, at least one of whom must be an Independent Member, on appropriate legal advice or on the advice of the Secretary. A register of sealings shall be maintained by the University and execution under the seal should be reported to the next meeting of the Employment and Finance Committee.
9.2	The Secretary shall ensure that the University Seal is held under secure arrangements.
10	AMENDMENTS TO THE INSTRUMENT OF GOVERNMENT
10.1	The University may vary, replace or revoke this Instrument of Government in accordance with the requirements set out in the Articles of Government, provided that such changes would not result in the University ceasing to be a charity.
11	DATE OF INSTRUMENT
11.1	This Instrument is dated 25 April 2022 and shall come into operation on 1 August 2022.
11.2	The Instrument shall routinely be reviewed every three years, with the next reviewed version coming into operation on 1 August 2025 and on every third anniversary thereafter. Amendments to the Instrument will also be made if required by changes in internal arrangements or external requirements, and will be submitted to Nominations Committee for endorsement and Board of Governors for approval.
